

Statewide DV/SA Community Job Bank

(posted according to information sent to WSCADV)

There are currently 13 job openings and 1 volunteer opportunity as of August 26, 2010

Volunteer Advocacy Training at DAWN

Register now for one of three trainings offered by DAWN. All classes are offered both during the day and in the evening. For more information and to register, please visit their website at <http://www.dawnonline.org/training/default.htm>. (posted 8/26/10)

East Cherry and South King County YWCA as a Domestic Violence Community Advocate

Qualifications include: minimum 20 hours initial basic training that covers the following: advocacy-based counseling; history of domestic violence; legal, medical, and social services; system advocacy; confidentiality and ethics; client safety assessments; planning, problem, and crisis intervention; providing services and advocacy to individuals from diverse communities; policies and procedures for DV services; and referrals and shelter resident transfer. At least 3 years experience in direct social service; one year experience working with victims of DV; Bachelor's degree in social sciences or related field (minimum 4 years experience in human services or related field may be substituted for degree); strong orientation toward advocacy, with ability to navigate multiple systems; knowledge of community resources; confidence in handling complicated situations; familiarity with how the interplay of cultural issues may influence how some women of color are affected by and respond to DV situations; vehicle with valid WSDL; ability to travel independently. To apply, please send a cover letter and resume to: dohiring@ywcaworks.org. This position closes on 9/7/10. (posted 8/26/10)

New Beginnings as a Women's Advocate

Qualifications include knowledge of domestic violence and shelter experience. To apply, please send resume and cover letter to New Beginnings, P.O. Box 75125, Seattle, WA 98175 or email to info@newbegin.org. For more information, please visit their website at www.newbegin.org. This position closes on 9/3/10. (posted 8/26/10)

SafePlace as a Spanish-Speaking Community Advocate

Qualifications include: high school diploma or General Education Degree (GED) or equivalent educational background; bilingual/bicultural in Spanish and English; two years' experience (paid or volunteer) providing social services to the Spanish-speaking community; demonstrated understanding of domestic and sexual violence issues; experience with basic computer skills including word processing, Internet and e-mail; demonstrated ability to understand and communicate with people of different socioeconomic and cultural backgrounds; have (or be willing to obtain) a car and liability insurance; have (or be willing to obtain) a telephone; commitment to the need for client and agency confidentiality; and agreement with the SafePlace philosophy statement. To apply please send a cover letter and resume to SafePlace Human Resource Director, P.O. Box 2002, Olympia, WA 98507 or email to cheril@safeplyceolympia.org. This position closes on 8/31/10. (Posted 8/26/10)

ASPEN as a Child Center Services Advocate in Yakima

Qualifications include: Bachelor's degree in social services or related field; bilingual English/Spanish preferred. For more information, please visit their website at: <http://cwcmh.appone.com> or call (509) 575-3894. This position will remain open until filled. (posted 8/26/10)

ASPEN as a Youth Advocate in Yakima

Qualifications include: Bachelor's degree in social services or related field; bilingual English/Spanish preferred. For more information, please visit their website at: <http://cwcmh.appone.com> or call (509) 575-3894. This position will remain open until filled. (posted 8/26/10)

ASPEN as a Crime Victim Advocate in Ellensburg

Qualifications include: Bachelor's degree in social services or related field. For more information, please visit their website at: <http://cwcmh.appone.com> or call (509) 575-3894. This position will remain open until filled. (posted 8/26/10)

The Salvation Army Domestic Violence Program as a Domestic Violence Community Advocate

Qualifications include: Bachelor's degree in social work or two years related field/relevant experience; previous experience providing direct services and case management in a domestic violence or related social service agency setting; experience networking and advocating with other agencies to access housing, medical, financial, legal, educational, and other resources on behalf of battered women and their children; experience, ability, and willingness to communicate and work well with staff and residents from a variety of racial, cultural, and economic backgrounds and with various religious beliefs, lifestyles, sexual orientations, age variance, and differing abilities; ability to relate in an empathetic, supportive, non-judgmental manner to DV survivors and their families; demonstrated ability to work well independently and as part of a team environment; strong and effective oral, written, and analytical skills; willingness to subscribe to the NASW social work code of ethics; willingness to abide by Salvation Army's drug and alcohol policy; documentation of current TB test and CPR, First Aid, and HIV/AIDS certificates within 90 days following employment; flexibility to work overtime on occasion; valid Washington State driver's license and reliable transportation including vehicle insurance. To apply please send a cover letter, resume and 3 professional references to: ciara.murphy@usw.salvationarmy.org. This position will remain open until filled. (posted 08/26/10)

The Salvation Army Catherine Booth House as a Domestic Violence Advocate (two positions)

Qualifications include: Bachelor's degree in social work or related field, or equivalent relevant experience; minimum one year of experience in direct service in a residential setting desirable; demonstrated experience and education in the field of domestic violence and advocacy-based counseling, including 20 hours of domestic violence education or equivalent experience in the first year of hire; ability to handle personal information and records in a confidential and secure manner; strong crisis intervention skills with the ability to prioritize and handle multiple tasks under stressful conditions; commitment to diversity and ability to provide culturally competent services with sensitivity to the needs of clients and staff from diverse racial, cultural, and economic backgrounds with various religious beliefs, lifestyles, sexual orientations, age variance, and abilities; demonstrated ability to work well independently and as part of a team environment, with proven ability to assist and support in the development of team decisions and program policies; experience in networking and advocating with other agencies on behalf of battered women and their children; ability to take crisis calls from any telephone; strong organizational and record-keeping skills; willingness to subscribe to the NASW social work code of ethics; non-use of any substance, including alcohol or any drug which might affect the health, safety, or well-being of a client, the public, other workers, or self while on the job or on Army premises; willingness to abide by The Salvation Army's Drug and Alcohol testing policy; willingness to undergo an initial (and annually thereafter) criminal background check with results confirming suitability for working with children before working in the shelter; willingness to provide documentation of current TB test status and CPR and First Aid certification within 90 days following employment and every year thereafter; willingness to meet the DSHS and WAC training requirements for DV Shelter Advocates; willingness to work overtime and unscheduled hours in the event of an emergency; ability to climb stairs; and ability maintain visual surveillance of the premises. To apply, please send a cover letter, resume and 3 professional references to: ciara.murphy@usw.salvationarmy.org. These positions will remain open until filled. (posted 08/26/10)

DAWN as a Shelter Children and Youth Advocate

Qualifications include: Bachelor's degree from an accredited institution of higher learning in Early Childhood Education or a related field (experience may be substituted for education); two years crisis intervention experience related to children and parents; knowledge of DV issues, including ability to assess the emotional, physical, and sexual abuse and neglect of children; strong time management, problem solving, and organizational skills; flexibility in programming needs; proficiency in Microsoft Office software strongly desired; must have own transportation a valid WSDL, and proof of insurance. To apply, please send a cover letter and resume to: DAWN, Attn: Judit, P.O. Box 88007, Tukwila, WA 98318 or email to judit@dawnonline.org or fax to (206) 592-9610. This position will remain open until filled. (posted 08/26/10)

DAWN as a Shelter Relief Advocate

Qualifications include: Bachelor's degree in related field (experience may be substituted for education); 1 year experience in crisis intervention and DV advocacy required; 1 year experience providing direct services to women in residential or social service setting required; experience in chemical dependency and/or mental health a plus; experience working with culturally diverse staff, volunteers, and residents, bilingual or multilingual skills a plus; dependable transportation and a valid WSDL; CPR and First Aid certification; HIV/AIDS certification; must be able to lift 35 pounds and traverse stairs. To apply, please send a cover letter and resume to: DAWN, Attn: Judit, P.O. Box 88007, Tukwila, WA 98318 or email to judit@dawnonline.org or fax to (206) 592-9610. This position will remain open until filled. (posted 08/26/10)

DAWN as a Domestic Violence Housing Advocate

Qualifications include: Bachelor's degree in social work or related field, three years of recent experience providing advocacy services; at least 1 year experience working as an advocate in a domestic violence agency preferred; some familiarity with South King County and housing resources throughout King county in general; 30 hours of recent domestic violence training; excellent customer service and advocacy skills; strong written and oral communication skills, listening skills, and a demonstrated ability to foster a supportive client environment; ability to work with diverse staff, clients and volunteers; ability to work effectively with lesbian, gay, bi-sexual, transgender and queer populations; proficiency with Microsoft Office, specifically, Word, Excel and Outlook; strong time management, problem solving and organizational skills; ability to work in a confidential manner and in a confidential setting; a strong commitment to DAWN's mission and values; experience with and ability to work as a team member and positive contributor to a workplace environment, and to work to ensure the success of others; own transportation, a valid WA State driver's license and proof of auto insurance; and current CPR/First Aid, or able to secure within one month of employment. To apply, please send a cover letter and resume to: DAWN, Attn: Sandi, P.O. box 88007, Tukwila, WA 98318 or email to judit@dawnonline.org or fax to (425) 656-4309. This position will remain open until filled. (posted 08/06/10)

Dove House as a Housing Assistant

Qualifications include: organizational skills, good time management, and the ability to work independently. Must pass a background check and have a current WSDL. To apply, please fax a resume to (360) 379-5395 or mail to P.O. Box 743, Port Townsend, WA 98368. This position will remain open until filled. (posted 08/26/10)

Dove House as an Advocate/Prevention Specialist

Qualifications include: experience counseling survivors of domestic violence or sexual abuse, public speaking, confidentiality, computer skills, organization, and time management skills. Must pass a background check and have a current WSDL. To apply, please fax a resume to (360) 379-5395 or mail to P.O. Box 743, Port Townsend, WA 98368. This position will remain open until filled. (posted 08/26/10)